

UGC NET Examination Syllabus & Structure

I. Paper 1: General Paper (Teaching & Research Aptitude)

Syllabus focuses on testing cognitive abilities, teaching skills, and general awareness.

- Unit-I: Teaching Aptitude – Learner characteristics, teaching methods, and evaluation systems.
- Unit-II: Research Aptitude – Research types, ethics, methods, and thesis writing.
- Unit-III: Comprehension – Reading comprehension questions and analysis.
- Unit-IV: Communication – Verbal/non-verbal communication, barriers, and mass media.
- Unit-V: Mathematical Reasoning – Number/letter series, coding-decoding, and basic math (fractions, ratio, profit & loss).
- Unit-VI: Logical Reasoning – Arguments, deductive/inductive reasoning, and Indian Logic (Pramanas).
- Unit-VII: Data Interpretation – Data sourcing, classification, and graphical representation (bars, pies, lines).
- Unit-VIII: ICT – Internet basics, email, audio/video conferencing, and digital education initiatives.
- Unit-IX: People, Development & Environment – Sustainable development goals, environmental issues, and climate agreements.
- Unit-X: Higher Education System – Evolution of education, Indian governance, and policy.

II. Paper 2: Subject-Specific Paper

- Content: This paper is based on the specific subject chosen by the candidate (e.g., Computer Science, Management, Economics, History, etc.).

III. Exam Structure & Marking Scheme

Feature	Details
Exam Mode	Computer-Based Test (CBT)
Question Type	Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)
Total Marks	300 Marks (Paper 1: 100
Total Questions	150 Questions (Paper 1: 50
Duration	3 Hours (180 Minutes) without a break

Feature	Details
Marking Scheme	+2 for each correct answer; No Negative Marking